HO CHI MINH CITY, 31st May 2023 – VinaLiving is honoured to announce that it has taken top spot in five categories at the 2023/24 International Property Awards (Asia Pacific region) in Bangkok (Thailand), one of the most acclaimed industry award programmes in the region. The awards won by VinaLiving are: two prestigious Five Star awards “Best Residential Development Vietnam” for The Ocean Villas Quy Nhon and “Best New Hotel Construction & Design Vietnam” for Maia Resort Quy Nhon, as well as awards for “Architecture Multiple Residence Vietnam” for The Ocean Villas Quy Nhon, “Hotel Interior Vietnam” for Maia Resort Quy Nhon and “Property Agency/Consultancy Marketing Vietnam” for VinaLiving. VinaLiving was also nominated for the international round in two categories, “Residential Development Asia-Pacific” and “New Hotel Construction & Design Asia-Pacific” for The Ocean Villas Quy Nhon and Maia Resort Quy Nhon.

The International Property Awards acknowledge excellence in construction, design, and innovation, and highlight the achievements of industry professionals who plan and construct quality new developments. The International Property Awards were established nearly 30 years ago and cover residential, hotel, resort as well as commercial categories. The highest scoring winners from the Asia Pacific region will later this year go on to compete against other winning companies from the other global regions to find the ultimate “World’s Best” in each category. The 2023/24 International Property Awards (Asia Pacific region) saw entrants from more than 20 countries. This year’s accolades bring VinaLiving’s total number of Awards to 18 since it competed for its first awards in 2011.

Mr. Do Chi Hieu, Chairman and CEO of VinaLiving, commented, “These international awards affirm VinaLiving as a recognized real estate development firm and help to verify the superior standard of quality and expertise we apply to each project we are involved in. We believe our approach of offering buyers a product that meets international standards at a competitive price, under one master brand, sets VinaLiving apart from its competitors not only in Vietnam, but also across the Asia Pacific region.”

The Ocean Villas Quy Nhon, VinaLiving’s latest project in Quy Nhon in central Vietnam, won in two categories: “Best Residential Development” and “Architecture Multiple Residence” in Vietnam. Located on the most beautiful beach in Nhon Hoi, The Ocean Villas Quy Nhon is a nearly 22 ha development comprised of 290 luxurious villas where the ultimate style meets impeccable design, with a range of luxury facilities.

The awards “Best New Hotel Construction and Design” and “Hotel Interior” in Vietnam affirm the prestige of The Ocean Villas Quy Nhon project. Inspired by the balance of wellness and culinary arts, Maia Resort Quy Nhon includes 88 villas with an open space design style that offers residents and guests a sense of comfort, privacy, and convenience. Each villa has its own private swimming pool, outdoor salon and spacious garden that harmoniously ‘brings the outside in’.

VinaLiving was also honoured as the winner of the “Property Agency/Consultancy Marketing in Vietnam” award. With a well-rounded team of real estate professionals, VinaLiving offers comprehensive real estate advisory and development strategies, helping to elevate the brand and increase value for developers.

“With the continued success of our integrated resort and world class golf course in Danang - The Ocean Resort (260 ha), along with Maia Resort Quy Nhon and The Ocean Villas Quy Nhon in Quy Nhon, Binh Dinh, VinaLiving will be building on that experience and launching a landmark integrated resort and golf development in Quy Nhon later this year. The 236 – ha project will be comprised of diversified components, such as Hill Villas, Beach Villas, and 18-hole golf course, a Hyatt Regency-branded hotel together with top-tier facilities. Additionally, VinaLiving will also introduce to the market The Ocean Suites, the latest phase in the Maia Quy Nhon Beach Resort. The Ocean Suites is a luxury low-rise condotel, consisting of two towers with 80 units ranging from 1 to 5 bedroom. Designed in a modern style with stunning views of the beach and the private garden and a resort-styled interior design, The Ocean Suites will be managed and operated by the Fusion brand. This is a promising and not-to-be-missed investment opportunity,” said Hieu.
