

VINACAPITAL STATEMENT ON THE PASSING OF ANDY HO

Ho Chi Minh City, 06 June 2024 – It is with great sadness that VinaCapital announces that Andy Ho, our Chief Investment Officer, passed away from a stroke at his home in Ho Chi Minh City.

Don Lam, CEO and Founding Partner, said: “Andy has been my trusted business partner since 2007, and he has been instrumental in the growth of the VinaCapital Vietnam Opportunity Fund and the company as a whole. More importantly, he has been a close friend who will be missed by me and everyone at the company. I am devastated by this loss. My deepest condolences are with his wife, family and loved ones.”

The company has a succession plan that we are implementing that is designed to deal with unexpected events. Brook Taylor, VinaCapital’s CEO of Asset Management, will serve as interim head of the VinaCapital Vietnam Opportunity Fund (VOF) along with co-managers Khanh Vu and Dieu Phuong Nguyen Thi, Deputy Managing Directors of VOF.
